The professional man who buys of an order house and a merchant who has his printing done out of town belong to the same lodge—same degree.

That our town is a live town is easy of demonstration. More business is done here now at this time of the year than has been done for several years. We are not desirous of having the public think we are suffering from a boom. We are enjoying an increase of business and prosperity. Our streets are crowded early and late, people and teams are bringing in produce and money to exchange for goods, and our merchants are paying the very highest market prices for produce and are selling goods at "live and let live" prices and the people are not slow to take advantage of this opportunity and get the bargains as advertised by our merchants.

Next to the wife beater comes the horse beater and it is to be regretted we have one or two in this community. A horse is the most noble and faithful of animals and the man who would abuse his horse has something lacking in his manhood.

A leading citizen in a neighboring town said to us "Do you know that your paper has just revolutionized your town?" People are now going there to trade who two years ago did not know there was such a town. It is the best weekly paper in the state and the business men cannot too highly appreciate it.

Bless the man who is to a reasonable amount, uneasy as long as he owes a dollar. If you are at some time compelled by unavoidable circumstances to request your merchant to extend you credit for a time, in making your application to him for it, don't tell him you will pay the first of the month when, in your opinion, it will be the tenth of the month before you will meet the obligation.

The trade territory of a town is not all dependent upon the distance to neighboring trading points. The trade territory depends upon the enterprise of the merchants and the residents of the town. If a town does not reach after the trade it will come only as fast as it has to, and it will grow as it is forced to. But if the merchants go after business in the surrounding country, advertising in every possible way, and making good every word of their advertising, trade will come from an ever-increasing radius, the town will gain a reputation for being awake and it will forge to the front. It is the men in the town and not altogether the men living within a certain number of miles from it that makes the town.

Girls Hat Burned by Cigar Lighter.

The suspended cigar lighter at McPherson's drug store selected daintier material than usual when it revealed in the tulle and feathers of a millinery creation, and as a result a Paducah young lady is minus a summer hat. Miss Gertrude Scott, while examining some photos at the cigar stand, unconscious of the hanging gas flame, leaned too far over it and the airy trimming of her hat caught fire. John Settle, prescriptionist of the drug store, who was standing behind the counter, was the first to see the flames leaping over the hat and stood almost paralyzed with fright, unable to make a move to inform Miss Scott of the catastrophe. Charles Leake, who was passing in front of the store, noticed the hat afire, rushed in and attempted to snatch it off, but unfortunately it was held fast by pins. With coolness Miss Scott removed the pins from the flaming hat and in an instant it had been flung into the big sink behind the soda water counter, with the full force of the water pouring from the faucet on the flames. When removed from the sink the hat was naturally a sorry sight. Half of the brim and one or two scorched roses were all that remained.

Miss Scott had a very narrow escape from serious burns on the head and face and is congratulating herself with escaping with only a few hairs singed off.—Paducah News-Democrat.
